MEDIA ADVISORY

Release Number: 12

Release Date: April 4, 2006

Live TV Broadcast of Supreme Court Session Today

Press Pool Available for TV, Radio Stations

- WHAT: The California Supreme Court hears oral arguments in Los Angeles. The first three cases will be broadcast live on California Channel.
- WHEN: Tuesday, April 4, 2005, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Supreme Court Courtroom
Ronald Reagan State Office Building
300 Spring Street, Los Angeles
- WHY: The cases involved various legal issues, including liability related to sexually transmitted disease; the priority of state timber laws over county regulations; and the propriety of a police "car stop" based on an anonymous tip concerning drunk driving.

LIVE BROADCAST: The California Channel, a public affairs network, is providing live television coverage of the first three cases. Check coverage at this link: www.calchannel.com. A press pool will be available for TV and radio stations on Main Street between 3rd and 4th Streets behind the Ronald Regan State Building.
